HOYLE ASKS FOR BRIDGE COST PROBE

Protests Payment Sonoma-Petaluma Road Claims Bearing Approval of County Engineer Aldrich.

That the county will lose at least $1500 by payment in full of claims endorsed by County Engineer Lloyd Aldrich for John Rocca, contractor, is charged in a communication addressed to the supervisors by District Attorney George W. Hoyle.

Aldrich has certified to the board that the building of three concrete bridges on the Petaluma-Sonoma highway was complete. Hoyle declares he is informed that at least one of the bridges has not been completed according to plans and specifications, and that the value of labor and material omitted from the bridges exceeds $1500.

Hoyle, in objecting to payment of the claim, urges that before any more money is expended on the contract, a "competent, disinterested civil engineer make a thorough and complete investigation of said three concrete bridges and report to this Board in writing whether or not said bridges have been completed in accordance with the contract plans and specifications."

In discussing the matter, the District Attorney questioned the correctness of a reduction made by Aldrich for the omission of 33 cubic yards of concrete at $17.10 a yard. He estimated that this should be nearly $30 a yard, and that the reduction of $564.10 from the contractor's claim should really be approximately $990.

Hoyle said that he understood that some of the abutments and other parts of the bridges were not built as heavily as called for in the contract.

According to law a contractor can be paid only 75 per cent of the contract price within a certain time after the completion of the work. Rocca has received all of his 75 per cent, it is said, except $199.19 which is the amount of the claim now under fire. Hoyle declares that if the situation is proved to be as he believes, the remaining 25 per cent can be retained by the county as protection in part against the loss.

The District Attorney's statement follows in full:

To the Honorable Board of Supervisors of the County of Sonoma, State of California—Gentlemen:

There having come to my attention the claim of John Rocca, filed with the County Auditor of Sonoma County, July 8, 1920, for the sum of $109.19, which is for final payment except the 25 per cent retained as provided by the contract and by law upon a contract for the construction of three concrete bridges on Petaluma-Sonoma Highway, Section B, and which said claim is approved by Lloyd Aldrich, County Engineer, and upon which said claim it is stated "contract 100 per cent completed," and the said Lloyd Aldrich, County

Engineer, having on the 17th day of June, 1920, filed with this Board a certificate in the words and figures as follows, to-wit:

June 17, 1920.
Subject: Contract with John Rocca, for the construction of three (3) bridges on Petaluma-Sonoma Highway, Section B. The Honorable Board of Supervisors, Sonoma County, California, Gentlemen:

Please be advised that John Rocca has completed the construction of three bridges on Petaluma - Sonoma Highway, Section B, in accordance with the plans and specifications and the contract therefor.

I therefore recommend that the same be accepted.

Yours very truly,
Lloyd Aldrich, County Engineer.

And whereas, I am informed that at least one of said bridges, to-wit, what is known as the center one, or the three-span bridge, has not been and is not completed in accordance with the plans and specifications and the contract therefor, and that value of the labor and material omitted from said three bridges is in excess of $1500, I therefore object to the payment of said claim and recommend that before any more money is paid upon said contract, your Honorable Board proceed to have some competent disinterested civil engineer make a thorough and complete investigation of said three concrete bridges and report to this Board in writing whether or not said bridges have been completed in accordance with the contract plans and specifications.

In discussing the matter, the District Attorney questioned the correctness of a reduction made by Aldrich for the omission of 33 cubic yards of concrete at $17.10 a yard. He estimated that this should be nearly $30 a yard, and that the reduction of $564.10 from the contractor's claim should really be approximately $990.

BENEFIT EVENT FOR ST FRANCIS CHURCH

Residents of Sonoma Valley will have an opportunity to attend one of the best entertainments of the season next Thursday night, July 22d, at the Boyes Springs Theatre.

All of the specialties will be by artists of the Orpheum circuit, and the program will be as varied as it will be meritorious.

There will be musical numbers, artistic dances, clever songs, and acrobatic stunts that will startle you. The event will be for the benefit of St. Francis church of Sonoma, and Father J. M. Byrne reports that the ticket sale already guarantees a crowded house. The curtain will go up at 8:30, and if you want a good seat, the advice of Father Byrne is to "come early."

SONOMA SCIOIS GO TO SANTA ROSA TO-NIGHT

The Sciois of Sonoma county will gather in full force to-night at Santa Rosa, when Santa Rosa Pyramid of the order gives its first big ceremonial, assisted by the Supreme officers and delegates from various Pyramids in this part of the state.

It is expected that there will be fully 500 visitors from the various Pyramids for the ceremonial, and nearly 100 candidates have been elected.

The visitors will be taken to Mirabel Park Sunday for an outing and all Masons and Sciois of the county are invited to the day's festivities, the park having been secured for the occasion.

In proportion to its Masonic membership, Sonoma probably has more Sciois than any other town in the county, and a large number of members and their wives will drive to Santa Rosa this evening to participate in the event.

O. R. Wagner was a visitor in Dixon Thursday.

CHURCH SERVICE FLAG RETIRED SUNDAY EVENING

Rolfe L. Thompson Gives Patriotic Address in Honor of Sonoma Boys Who Went to War.

For two years a flag bearing twenty-nine stars has been suspended on the wall of the Congregational Church of Sonoma, as evidence of the loyalty of that number of Christian young men of this community, members of that church. With fitting ceremony Sunday evening, in song and prayer and words of eulogy, this flag was taken from the wall and laid away as one of the treasured records of the church's part in the great war.

The auditorium of the church was filled with relatives and friends of the boys who had offered their lives at their country's call, and the program was impressive and deeply interesting.

"Onward Christian Soldiers" was the opening hymn, in which the large congregation joined with the choir.

Dr. Pfeiffer read the Scripture lesson, which was followed with a prayer by Rev. Isaac Cookman.

Mrs. Savacool sang "The Star-Spangled Banner" most effectively, bringing a patriotic thrill to the audience, and the choir united in the chorus.

Rev. Cookman made a short address on the meaning of the service flag, and his remarks were followed by a violin solo by E. J. Knolle.

Rolfe L. Thompson of Santa Rosa, who made the principal address of the evening, was then introduced by Rev. Cookman. Mr. Thompson is one of Sonoma county's most able and forceful speakers, and where his theme has to do with higher ideals, with patriotism and love of country, with purposes and aspirations that are really worth while, Mr. Thompson is at his best. He paid splendid tribute to the loyalty of the boys as represented by the stars of the flag, and illustrated his theme with references to the lives of some of the patriots of this country.

Mr. Thompson's address was listened to with the closest attention, and at its close many gathered about the speaker to express earnest congratulations.

Rev. C. C. Champlin conducted the ceremonies of lowering the flag, in the course of which he assured those of the boys who were present that, though the starry record of their service was to disappear from public view, their service to their country would never be forgotten.

A number of the boys who were represented by the stars of the flag were present, representing the Sonoma American Legion Post.

The full list of Congregation Church boys for whom stars adorned the flag, is as follows:

SONOMA BOYS PRESENT GOOD PROGRAM AT DON

"Standing Room Only" Was Available To Those Who Came Fashionably Late.

It may have been due to the energetic and effective advertising done by the boys or it may have been their deserved reputation as entertainers, or a combination of both these elements, but at any rate the entertainment presented by local boys at the Don Theatre Wednesday and Thursday evenings attracted audiences that packed Mr. Mohr's amusement place "to the hilt" as "Easy Jim" would express it. Many of those who came fashionably late were compelled to stand during the presentation of the program.

As an introduction to the movie feature of the evening, Haster Ring gave the poem, "The Shooting of Dan McGrew," from which the picture is adapted. He has talent as a character reader, and the interpretation added to the interest of the picture.

A large share of the individual honor went to Meryl Bish, as usual, for his songs and jokes, for he is at home as an entertainer, and he was compelled to work overtime to satisfy the appreciative audience.

Fred Schell's political stump speech on "Capital and Labor" made this perplexing present-day problem as pellucid as putty, and his ability earned the generous applause that came his way.

The one-act-play "Ding-a-ling" was a "humdinger," full of pep from start to finish, with emphasis on the finish, when Meryl Bish was mobbed by four wrathful employers to whom he had been hired for work at one and the same time by Harold Prestwood, crooked employment agent, who "beat it" when the fees had been collected and the trouble climaxed.

There was no break in the presentation of "Ding-a-ling," the audience got its money's worth, and evidenced approval with hearty applause.

Miss Ruth Clements at the piano furnished accompaniment for various numbers on the program, which was as follows in full:

CLARENCE F. LEA FOR CONGRESS

Several Republicans have announced themselves as coming candidates for Congress from this district, but none of the timber has yet begun to measure up to the incumbent and representative of this district, Congressman Clarence F. Lea. From the standpoint of constructive usefulness to the district, we have never had a representative at Washington who has accomplished so much and gained recognition and financial aid from the government on so many projects. Mr. Lea is highly regarded at Washington as a clear-cut, clear-thinking, vigorous young politician from the West, and he is now so thoroughly experienced in the affairs of state that we can all well hope that he will be returned for another term to the National Capital to continue his good work. Endorsed at the last election by both the Republican and Democratic parties, he has served the interests of all the people with conscientious regard for our Golden State and for those who live within the peerless precincts of his district.

GIVE US FIRE PROTECTION

With every recurring big fire which sweeps country towns in California and elsewhere the lack of proper protection in Sonoma is brought home to us, and fear seizes us that sooner or later we will regret deeply our neglect of this all important civic matter. The late accounts of Willows' costly conflagration and the recent experience Sonoma had with its antiquated equipment when a residence on west Napa street went up in smoke, should stir the city trustees and every citizen to action. Both a chemical engine and water should be available, and we believe that there is not a single tax payer who would demur to a special tax if thereby Sonoma was to get adequate protection from the fire demon.

Let us take action before it is too late.

WITH THE FILING of the recall petition against District Attorney Hoyle, it is announced that several attorneys of the county are willing to go on the ballot against him. We are of the opinion that it is not to the credit of any reputable attorney to seek a county office under circumstances such as are apparent in this recall proceeding. The average voter can not but regard the candidate of the Hoyle opposition with more or less suspicion that he will become the puppet and do the bidding of those who started the embroilment. If the recall had been instigated because of dishonesty and crookedness, or if District Attorney Hoyle's reputation was bad, it would be a different matter, but the charges made by his enemies—Peterson, Sexton, Rand and others—are "incompetency, inefficiency, neglect and failure to prosecute public offenses, and willful obstruction of lawful road building and road repair."

The perfunctory attempt to "get" and honest public servant on the sly of the clique who drafted these charges will be roundly repudiated at the polls next month.

A COMPOSITE PICTURE of the Third Party now looming up to disrupt the ranks of other political parties, would not look well in print if all the elements of which it is begotten were delineated. It would be a sinister picture of irresponsible faddists, wild-eyed anarchists, disgruntled socialists, ominous Bolsheviks, stampeded workmen, lazy, sleeved I. W. W.'s and cunning yellow journalism with the extreme incompatible temperaments of all crowding to the fore and seeking to give the impression of their control. We do not believe that utterances recently made at the bird party conference wherein Russia's great accomplishment of upheaval was lauded will help the cause with American voters who seek guidance for as great a ship of state as was ever launched as a carrier for a great people who have the real interest of mankind at heart, and a practical idea of how the world can be benefited through a democracy such as our government typifies. What the United States needs is more loyalty, not more political parties.

SPECIAL ATTRACTION AT FETTERS THEATRE SUNDAY

The management of the Feters Theatre has arranged for an especially fine attraction Sunday, when the Universal Corporation will present Priscilla Dean in "The Silk-Lined Burglar." A six part drama, Sweede Carlson's six-piece jazz orchestra will furnish the music for dancing.

BAD CHECK PASSER OUT ON PROBATION

William Hacker of Sonoma, who was arrested some time ago by Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan at Sacramento on a charge of passing a bad check for $25, has been released by Judge Seawell on two years' probation.

West Coast Fire Company stock has taken a 25 per cent advance which will be good news to the thirty-six investors in Sonoma Valley. About $15000 worth of the stock was taken here.

ENJOYING VACATION IN THE HIGH SIERRAS

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Murphy of the Index-Tribune left Tuesday afternoon in their Buick roadster on a vacation trip that will take them across the Sierras and to Reno, Nevada.

The have no thought of marital disunion in making Reno a terminal point, but will seek recreation and pleasure by traversing highways of early-California historical interest, and loitering along the shores of many of the enchanting lakes of the high Sierras.

Mr. and Mrs. Murphy expected to spend Tuesday night in Sacramento and to leave there Wednesday morning for the mountains. They will take the Placer county route by way of Auburn and Colfax, viewing the scenes of early-day hydraulic mining at Gold Run and Dutch Flat, then on through the old-time lumbering region from Alta to Emigrant Gap, from which point their way will follow the route traversed by those of the Donner party who escaped starvation at the lake in the winter of 1846.

Mr. and Mrs. Murphy will visit Donner Lake and Tahoe, and on their return from Reno plan to take the Tioga route to Yosemite Valley, and then home to Sonoma. They expect to be absent about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Murphy have put in a number of years of close application to the upbuilding of the Index-Tribune and the community it represents, and this is their first good vacation. They anticipated a happy trip.

During their absence the Index-Tribune will be in the care of F. W. Cooke.

S. Ringstrom and daughter, Miss Eleanor Ringstrom of San Francisco, are spending a few days in Sonoma. Mr. Ringstrom's eldest daughter, Miss Natalia, recently left for New York, accompanied by her mother, to fill engagement as an artistic dancer at the Lyceum Theatre in that city.

Miss Natalia has appeared at a number of high-class entertainments in San Francisco as a dancer, and her artistic talent in this line won the attention of a New York theatrical manager, resulting in her engagement to appear in New York.

Miss Ringstrom was born in Sonoma, and is a great granddaughter of General Vallejo. In addition to the talent she is manifesting as an artistic dancer, Miss Ringstrom is a strikingly beautiful girl. Her many friends in Sonoma will be pleased to learn of the success with which she is meeting.

SEBASTIANI WILL CAN FRUIT THE COMING SEASON

Sam Sebastiani and Dave Eraldi spent Sunday and Monday of this week in San Jose, where Mr. Sebastiani investigated the equipment and methods of a large cannery.

Mr. Sebastiani is planning to enlarge his Sonoma cannery and for the first time will can pears this season. Heretofore the Sonoma cannery has handled vegetables only, and the product sent out by Sebastiani has won a high reputation for its excellence.

The pears grown in the Sonoma Valley have a high rating in the California and the Eastern markets. It is said that they keep better in transportation than do pears grown in other sections of the state.

Mr. Sebastiani will, undoubtedly put out a grade of canned pears and other fruits that will win additional fame in this line for the Sonoma valley.

WILMA MARTINSON IS IN CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Martinson returned Tuesday from San Francisco, where they had taken their six-year old daughter, Wilma, for a surgical operation. The little girl has been suffering almost from birth from a species of paralysis of the feet, and could walk only with difficulty. Surgical operations were performed on the child's feet, and it is hoped that a cure will result. The little girl stood the ordeal bravely, and was doing nicely when her parents left. She will remain at the hospital about two weeks.

EL VERANO LAND SALE

Charging misinformation and misrepresentation with a wilful intent to defraud, Frederick J. Buezle and Amelia L. Buezle filed a suit in the superior court last week demanding the return of a $300 deposit alleged to have been paid by them to Mrs. Belle Spindler on a 50-acre tract of land between El Verano and Glen Ellen.

The plaintiffs declare that they made an agreement with the defendant to purchase the property from her for $20,000. After paying the $300 deposit they say they discovered that part of the land adjoining the county highway did not really belong to the defendant as they had supposed.

Demand for return of the money was refused, the Buezles declare, and soon afterward Mrs. Spindler deeded the property to her daughter, Vera Westrope. This was also done with intent to defraud, it is claimed.

MAN WHO ATTEMPTED SUICIDE WILL LIVE

That a man will live with a bullet in his brain is proven in the case of Alberto Butteri, who recently fired two shots into his ear in an attempt at suicide. Butteri was picked up at El Verano by Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan in a precarious condition. He was taken to the county hospital and an examination by Dr. Pryor, county physician, disclosed the fact that he had two bullets in his head. An operation removed one of the bullets but the other had imbedded itself in the brain and could not be reached.

Since his operation Butteri has been regaining his strength and shows no signs of paralysis or other symptoms usually associated with brain pressure.

DENY OWING COMMISSION ON SALE OF WINE

Denial by Pagan Brothers, Sonoma wine makers, that they owe $1,026 in commissions to the estate of the late Frederick Perelli-Minetti, broker, was entered in Santa Rosa Friday in an answer to the suit brought against them by A. J. Perelli-Minetti, administrator of the broker's estate.

It was claimed in the suit that F. Perelli-Minetti sold 89,268 1-2 gallons of wine for the Pagan Brothers in 1919, at 46 cents a gallon, or a total of $41,063.51. The administrator is suing for two and a half percent commission on the sale.

PURCHASE OF OLD MILL PROFITABLE TO COUNTY

With a total cost to Sonoma county of $900—$400 purchase price and $500 for a wrecking crew—the old mill at Jenner-by-the-Sea promises to be a profitable enterprise for the county, says Harry P. Fish, county purchasing agent.

The county obtained 140,000 board feet of lumber from the old mill and much of this is worth $40 to $60 a thousand feet at current prices. At the minimum price the county has timber worth $56,000, or a profit of about $4700 on the transaction.

The wrecking of the mill gives the county sufficient timber for bridge and culvert work for several years to come.

READJUSTING LAND VALUES FOR TAX PURPOSES

J. C. Smith, County Assessor, was a visitor in Sonoma Wednesday. Mr. Smith is making a systematic readjustment of land valuations for taxation purposes, throughout the county.

"This does not mean," said Mr. Smith, "that all land valuations will be increased. In fact, the valuation of a farm I visited to-day in the Sonoma valley will be lowered a little under what it has been assessed at heretofore. Of course, on the whole, I hope for a substantial increase in the county's rural tax valuations. But it will not be a fixed and arbitrary raise, which would manifestly be unjust in many instances."

"There has been no systematic readjustment of valuations of farm lands in Sonoma county for twenty years or more, and under conditions prevailing now a revaluation is necessary. It will be just and fair to every land-owner."

GRASS FIRE ENDANGERS
FETTERS SPRINGS PROPERTY

A grass fire of unknown origin for a time Tuesday endangered Meinhardt's Garden at Feters Springs. The fire was in the rear of the resort, and spread rapidly through the dry grass. George Cause, fire chief of Boyes Springs, with the help of his volunteer firemen rushed the chemical engine to the scene, and the fire was extinguished just as it had reached the home of Mr. Miles.

Sunday evening Fire Chief Cause and his "Little Red Devil" were called on to extinguish a fire at Mr. Boring's house at Feters Springs.

DRIED APPLES SEEM IN LITTLE DEMAND

A leading fruit man states that there are between 600 and 700 tons of dried apples of last year's crop on hand in warehouses in Sonoma county. One holder of 50 tons of dried apples said that he had been endeavoring to negotiate a sale of his dried apples at 12 cents a pound if possible. He had a chance to sell last year at a good figure, but held for a higher price, and it did not come. He said he expected to lose in the neighborhood of $15,000 as a result of his failure to sell last year.

COUNTY NEWS

Monte Rio has bought an auto chemical fire truck. In addition to its equipment, the truck can carry ten men to a fire.

Of the 72 teachers who held positions in the Santa Rosa schools last year, 63 have signed their contracts for the coming year, it was announced Thursday by John Rimmer, president of the board of education. This improved situation is attributed largely to the increases in salaries.

Jack Patteson, son of the late C. L. Patteson, chairman of the Board of Supervisors for several years, and Miss Ruth Miller, Healdsburg kindergarten teacher, were married last week at the home of the bride's parents in Fulton.

H. R. Bull, principal of the Healdsburg grammar school, has been chosen president of the Sonoma county board of education. Jesse F. Prestwood of Sonoma and A. B. Way of Petaluma, whose terms on the county board had expired, were reappointed.

A. Ballati, owner and driver of a truck at Cloverdale was arrested near Fort Bragg for transporting intoxicating liquor without a permit, and 200 gallons of wine was confiscated by Deputy Sheriff Ward Reese of Mendocino county. Ballati and a companion were traveling in the guise of campers.

Deer season will open in Sonoma county August 1. Reports from different parts of Sonoma county are to the effect that bucks are apparently plentiful this season.

About $2000 a month is being expended in Sonoma county on indigent relief outside of the county farm and hospital, according to Miss Pauline Olson, secretary of the Sonoma County Social Service commission.

Peter W. Bussman, rancher of the Mt. Olivet section, will be a candidate for supervisor from this district at the August primaries, in opposition of William L. Cunningham.

J. H. Rosseter, owner of a string of race horses, bred and trained in Sonoma county, has just refused an offer of $50,000 for Inchcape, the two-year-old of the Wickup Rancho on Mark West creek.

Harold K. Loughery was fined $1000 in the United States court in San Francisco Friday morning for his connection with the wrecking of the Santa Rosa National bank.

All three county supervisors whose terms expire will seek re-election—Oscar Charles, Harry Weise and W. L. Cunningham.

Work on the new $40,000 building in Santa Rosa to be occupied by the Proctor Tractor and Implement company was started last week.

Petaluma hens have made the best record so far in the California Farm Bureau egg-laying contest being held in Santa Cruz. The white leghorn hens of D. B. Walls of Petaluma led all the other pens by a record of 1397 eggs and one of his hens holds the highest individual record by laying 186 eggs since the contest started.

William Shaw of Santa Rosa was installed for the 56th time last week as treasurer of the Odd Fellows. Mr. Shaw has served thirteen consecutive years, and his record is probably one of the highest in the state.

William King has filed his nomination papers for the office of supervisor in the Fifth district. The advent of Mr. King in the race makes three contestants for the position. Supervisor Oscar Charles will be a candidate to succeed himself, while Robert T. Kee will be the other contender.

Mr. and Mrs. Blair Hart, who for many years resided on the Hart ranch at Lakeville, will remove to Petaluma on August 1st, and will make their permanent home there. Their son, Allen Hart, will conduct the ranch.

An egg-laying contest is proposed in the Petaluma district, to start November 1st. It is planned that the contest be limited to Sonoma county entries.

Florence Brand, six years old, of Melita, this county, was drowned in a creek at that place Sunday afternoon. She was in wading when she stepped in a hole and disappeared.

Allen Hart of Lakeville, son of ex-supervisor and Mrs. Blair Hart, was married at Los Angeles on April 19th, to Mrs. Eva Miller, of Sacramento, and the couple kept the news of their marriage a secret up to a few days ago.

Authority to transfer to Fred Hahn the operating license under which they have been conducting an auto stage line between Calistoga and Santa Rosa has been granted to R. E. Elkstrom and T. R. Wilcox by the railroad commission.

Miss Silver Strout has been appointed deputy horticultural commissioner for Sonoma county by O. E. Bremner. Miss Strout will have an office with Mr. Chase at Sebastopol.

Georgiana G. Connolly, widow of the late John D. Connolly, Occidental philosopher, who died June 26 last, has filed a petition for letters of administration. The estate is valued at approximately $10,000.

None of the mighty strength of the Gillette Tires and Tubes runs wild. None of it is wasted. The remarkable Gillette Chilled Rubber Process—the newer and better way of Tire and Tube making, increases—then cages up—the natural resistance of rubber—toughens it as iron is toughened by conversion into steel. No other method can accomplish this.

Gillette Tires and Tubes do not go to pieces when exposed to heat, cold or dampness. They hold their own against hardest going. They remain firm and full of fight despite long, grinding friction.

One Gillette will prove to you the fact we are already solidly convinced of—that they are positively longest wearing, least costly of all tires and tubes. Make a mileage test—one Gillette against three of other makes.

The Women's Improvement Club of Glen Ellen is working out plans for a Jack London memorial exhibit at the Sonoma county fair, August 23 to 29, according to Secretary H. J. Waters of the fair association.

It is reported that the women plan to operate a separate booth during the fair and sell souvenirs of the distinguished author to augment the funds for the erection of the memorial library at Glen Ellen.

The display is said to include photographs of London, copies of his books and some of his original manuscripts.

CHARLES LANE OPENS AUTO BUSINESS IN GLEN ELLEN

Charles Lane of Glen Ellen was a visitor in Sonoma Wednesday. Mr. Lane left Glen Ellen about two years ago, and engaged in auto tire business at Burlingame. He recently decided to return to the town that has been the family home for many years, and has opened an auto tire and accessories shop in the post office building in Glen Ellen. He has had several years of practical experience in this line of public service, and his many friends in Sonoma valley will wish him success.

VINEBURG NEWS

All of our fruit growers are now busy packing and shipping fruit and a number of hands are working at the packing house, and the firm of Martin & Brannan is making shipments to the metropolis daily.

This week the annual storing of grain started at the Batto warehouses and the first lot of this year's wheat was received from the Wattris & Serres ranch at Agua Caliente.

Le Misses Mac, Batto and Norman Fignon are the guests of friends in the bay city this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wolf (nee Irken Kerner) of San Francisco were the guests of friends and relatives this week and on Tuesday spent the afternoon with Mrs. Ellis Vernon.

After a pleasant two weeks' visit at the Fred Batto residence, Mrs. Edward Bosquet and son, Alfred, returned to their city home on Sunday accompanied by Mrs. Fred Batto and her son, Herbert John. Mrs. Batto expects to be absent a week or 10 days.

Our old assistant, Miss "Ollie Oliver," who after giving up her newspaper work obtained a position as "Horse Shoer" in a hair dressing parlor from where she graduated with "Airplane Efficiency" (that means high honors) has now a responsible position at the apple factory. Ollie tells us that she handles a large quantity of small apples and a small quantity of large apples, and by the time the season is over, she might be able to tell the difference between a Bartlett pear and a French prune. Some bright kid, that "Ollie."

Messrs. L. Schluekher, the leading hardware merchant of Petaluma, and J. H. Gwinn, president of the Petaluma National Bank, two of Sonoma county's most prominent citizens, were the guests of Fred Batto on Sunday last.

The picture John Mohr showed on Tuesday evening of the Klondyke was fine, but it looked so cold that Jim Small hasn't got warm yet, and Morris Levy ordered a ton of coal next day.

Fred Batto transacted business in Petaluma on Wednesday, accompanied by his daughter, Emily, "Miss California."

MORE IRRIGATION NEEDED IN SONOMA COUNTY

The following suggestions to farmers have been sent out from the office of the Sonoma County Farm Adviser:

The relation of soil moisture to fruit crops is one of the most vital questions before the orchardist at all times but is of increasing interest during periods of low rainfall such as have occurred in the past two years.

The average orchardist follows generally good tillage methods thru the summer attempting to conserve all the moisture he may. Often by careless methods more is lost than necessary in cultivation. Continually stirring the soil with tools which turn over large quantities of moist soil to the sun will help to lose large quantities of moisture when it might be conserved with a tool which stirred the soil but did not turn it to the sun.

Actual conditions of the subsoil should be known at all times by the orchardist. The depth of a shovel blade is not at all a criterion. Moisture at five or six feet from the surface is of greater importance than any other factor. A soil auger should be at all times available and used regularly to determine this.

While in general orchardists in most parts of Sonoma county have produced satisfactory crops without irrigation, practice shows that in periods of rainfall less than normal irrigation is a great advantage and even in years of average rainfall a fall irrigation when fruit buds are developing is of sufficient advantage to warrant the cost.

FORECLOSURE ON OLD RANCH

The California Savings Bank of Petaluma filed suit yesterday in the Superior Court against Peter F. and Joseph P. Clark etc., et al., to foreclose on a mortgage given to secure payment of a note for $2000 dated July 7, 1915, together with interest from Jan. 7, 1920 and $150 attorney fees.

The land affected is 300 acres on the Petaluma-Sonoma road near the halfway house. The land was deeded by M. G. Vallejo to Dennis Murray, Jan. 2, 1858. Dennis died about two years ago at the advanced age of more than 100 years, but had sold the property to the late Peter Clark some time prior to his death.

SEBASTOPOL REPORTS GOOD OUTLOOK FOR APPLE MARKET

President E. C. Meritt, of the Sebastopol Apple Growers' Union states that the outlook for gravenstein apples is very favorable this year. The inquiry for apples in the Eastern market is brisk, although there is a tendency that prices will be a trifle lower than last season.

The gravenstein business is extending over a greater territory each year and every season sees this variety of fruit introduced into new markets so as to keep pace with the increasing production. Mr. Merritt estimates that the total output of gravensteins this year from this section will somewhat larger than last year and will run over 500 cars.

The late varieties of apples will not be as abundant as last year and some varieties, such as the Spitzenberg and Baldwins, will be particularly short. The gravenstein will commence to be packed about the 15th of July, but the Graton and Forestville packing houses will start to pack astrachans on next Tuesday. The gravensteins are showing a tendency to color very early this year.

In addition to the new packing house at Molino the Union will open packing houses in Healdsburg and Santa Rosa this season. They will also handle the pack of the Sonoma Valley Apple Growers' in the usual manner.—Sebastopol Times.

WINE SELLS AT 80 CENTS A GALLON

With wine at 80 cents a gallon, and the output of some of the northern Sonoma cellars bringing that figure, the outlook for the coming vintage of 1920 looks promising. The grape crop this year will doubtless be smaller than that of a year ago, according to statements of growers, but as far as can be seen in the future the outlook for good prices was never better and perhaps not as good as at the present time.

With a decreased acreage each year, due to phylloxera and also to the fact that growers have hesitated to increase acreage on account of prohibition, those who have wine grapes are securing big revenue from their vines. Through the California Grape Growers' Exchange they have a marketing organization that will be in a position this year to sell their grapes at prices ranging from $50 to $70 per ton, depending up the variety. These grapes will go to market for a number of purposes. Many of them will be dried and the raisins shipped East, where there is sure to be big demand from people who have heretofore purchased California wines but are now denied that privilege. Perhaps even more grapes will be made into syrup than will be dried, as grape syrup is also susceptible to many uses and should find a good market once its possibilities become known throughout the nation.

There seems to be good market for wine for sacramental and medicinal purposes. There has been more disposed of through that channel this year than even those in close touch with the wine business ever believed possible. With the wine men emptying their cooperage at around 80 cents a gallon they have no cause for complaint at the outlook, as the California Grape Growers' Exchange has every assurance that it will be able to provide an outlet for this year's crop to all its members. Growers not yet signed up with the Exchange should not neglect to affix their signature without delay. It is their Exchange and it is bound to be a big factor in the grape industry, insuring the growers good prices for their crops.

SUMMER APPLE SPRAYS

The apple grower should not overlook the importance of the summer spray for control of worms in his fall and winter varieties of apples. The worms that are now in the apples may be few in number and easily overlooked, but they will leave the apples the first of July and lay eggs that will in a few days produce a second generation and it will surprise you the number of wormy apples that will then be in evidence.

The only way to prevent this condition is by a spray applied about the 10th of July. This spray consists of a flour paste carrier and arsenate of lead and where mildew is prevalent also, add sulfur paste. This application should be thorough so that the surface of the apples and leaves are evenly coated with the poison. We prefer a good driving spray from and angle nozzle than the use of a gun. The formula is as follows:
Flour paste (jelly 6 lbs., or dry 1 lb.)
Sulfur paste (Atomic sulfur 10 lbs. or dry milled 6 lbs.)
Arsenate of lead 2 1-2 lbs.
Water to make 100 gals.

NOTICE!

All persons having burial plots in Mountain Cemetery, not marked, are kindly requested to mark them with a post at each corner, with name cut in same. The post must be durable. Either from stone or cement. We wish to protect everyone that has a plot, and to help the sexton to keep the place in better condition.
